Bad children are like pests,
They destroy everything at home,
They damage property,,
They steal and hide people's things,
They are rude to everybody,
Bad children are like pests.

Good children are like gold in a home,
They are loved by everyone,
They listen to everybody,

They obey instructions,
They are polite,
They are careful in what they do,
They bring pride to a home,
Good children are like gold.

Read the story below and answer the questions that follow in full sentences

Once upon a time, there was a chameleon. Her name was Eleo. She was a young chameleon. She really liked the way her skin changed colours. She got a green colour when sitting on grass. She got a brown colour when walking on the ground. She had red, yellow or white when near flowers.

Eleo went from one place to another and she discovered many things. Eleo used her long tongue to catch her food. She liked eating insects. Her favourite insects were flies and ants. Eleo liked looking for flowers. They made her skin change the colour. A chameleon is a special animal because it has a special skin that changes colours.
