GRAMMAR LESSON NOTES

TERM ONE

WEEK 2

ADJECTIVES.

LESSON 1

Adjectives.

An adjective is a word which is used to describe a noun or Pronoun. It tells more about something or someone.

Examples of adjectives.

clean, helpful, courageous, hardworking, lazy beautiful, ugly, cheerful, interesting, green, yellow, red, reckless, careless etc.

- Adjectives can be placed in two positions.

(a) after a verb 'to be' e.g.

-The headmaster was busy.

The traffic officer was rude at the careless driver.

-The boy is lazy.

-This exercise is hard.

(b) before the noun e.g.

-Careless drivers are not good.

-Diana is a helpful girl

-God-fearing people live longer.

-Hard working children are loved by all teachers.

Exercise.

Use the adjectives given below to construct correct sentences.

1. safe
2. careful
3. expensive
4. dangerous
5. reckless

Underline the adjectives in the following sentences.

6. A taxi park is a busy place.
7. There is a big signpost near our school.
8. The police has arrested the careless driver.
9. There are several black spots along Masaka – Mbarara Road.

LESSON 2 AND 3

KINDS OF ADJECTIVES

(a) Descriptive adjectives (Adjectives of quality)

These tell us what kind of person or thing is. They answer the question:
What kind of……?

Examples.

- a cunning conductor.
-dangerous mechanical condition
-a careful driver
-a troublesome passenger
-quarrelsome traffic officer

(b) Adjectives of quantity.

These show how much of a thing is meant. They answer the question;
How much/ many…?

Examples

-Joel ate some rice.
-He showed much patience at the reception.
There isn't anyone in that bus.
-I spoke few words to the conductor.

(c) Adjectives of number.

These show how many persons or things are meant or in what order a person or thing stands.

Examples.

-He has lost all his wealth.
-Each driver must show his driving permit every time he is stopped by a traffic police officer.
-Few conductors respect passengers.
-John's car had only two seatbelts.

(d) Demonstrative adjectives.

These point out which person or thing is meant e.g. those, these, that, this.
These adjectives answer the question 'which…?'
Examples;
That car is very expensive.
Those traffic officers are corrupt.
This is the driver who disobeyed the traffic officers.
These traffic lights have not worked for two weeks now.

Activity

Underline the adjectives in the following sentences

WEEK 3

LESSON 1

COMPARISON OF ADJECTIVES.

Adjectives can be compared in three degrees.

(a) Positive degree of adjective.

-It is used when no comparison is made.

Examples

Stella is a short girl.

-What a rough road that is!

-Our driver is very rude.

-It is dangerous to drive at night without lights.

-That pedestrian is very fat.

(b) Comparative degree of adjective.

This denotes a higher degree of the quality than the positive one. It is used when two people or things are compared e.g.

Sophie is taller than Samuel.

Which of the twins is brighter?

-This vehicle is older than that one.

My daddy's car is more expensive than your mummy's car.

(c) The superlative degree of adjective.

This denotes the highest degree of the quality. It is used when comparing more than two persons or things. e.g.

-Atenyi is the tallest of the three boys.

-Which is the most expensive car on the market?

-Susan is the eldest girl in her family.

Which is the oldest building in Greenhill Academy?

NOTE: The definite article 'the' should always be used before an adjective in the superlative degree.

Formation of comparative and superlative adjectives.

- Most adjectives of one syllable, and some of more than one, form the comparative by adding ----------er and the superlative by adding ----------est to the positive e.g.

Positive	Comparative	Superlative
sweet	sweeter	sweetest
small	smaller	smallest
cheap	cheaper	cheapest

- When the positive ends in ----------e, only ----------r and ----------st are added. e.g.

Positive	Comparative	Superlative
brave	braver	bravest
large	larger	largest
wise	wiser	wisest

- When the positive ends in ----------y, preceded by a consonant, the --y is changed into -i- before adding --er and --est

Examples.

Positive	Comparative	Superlative
happy	happier	happiest
easy	easier	easiest
heavy	heavier	heaviest
busy	busier	busiest
pretty	prettier	prettiest

- When the positive is a word of one syllable and ends in a single consonant preceded by a short vowel, this consonant is doubled before adding ----er and ----est……

Examples.

Positive	Comparative	Superlative
big	bigger	biggest
hot	hotter	hottest
fat	fatter	fattest
thin	thinner	thinnest

- Adjectives of more than two syllables and many of those with two, form the comparative by using the word 'more' with the positive and 'most' with the superlative. e.g.

Positive	Comparative	Superlative
courageous	more courageous	most courageous handsome	more handsome	most handsome beautiful	most beautiful	----------
difficult	more difficult	most difficult

LESSON 2

- Irregular comparisons.
  The following adjectives are compared irregularly i.e. their comparative and superlative are not formed from the positive e.g.

Positive	Comparative	Superlative/
good/well	better	best
bad	worse	worst
little	less	least
much	more	most(quantity)
many	more	most(number)
late	later/latter	latest/last
old	older/elder	oldest/eldest
far	farther	farthest(distance)
near	nearer	nearest/next

Exercise.

Complete the table correctly.

Positive	Comparative	Superlative
1. ignorant	----------	----------
2. ugly	----------	----------
3. tidy	----------	tidiest
4. ---------	luckier	luckiest
5. ---------	worse
6. thin	----------	----------
7. well	----------	----------
8. ---------	----------	cleverest

9.	rude	----------	----------
10.	--------	dirtier	----------
11.	industrious	----------	----------
12.	faithful	----------	----------
13.	---------	----------	richest

LESSON 2

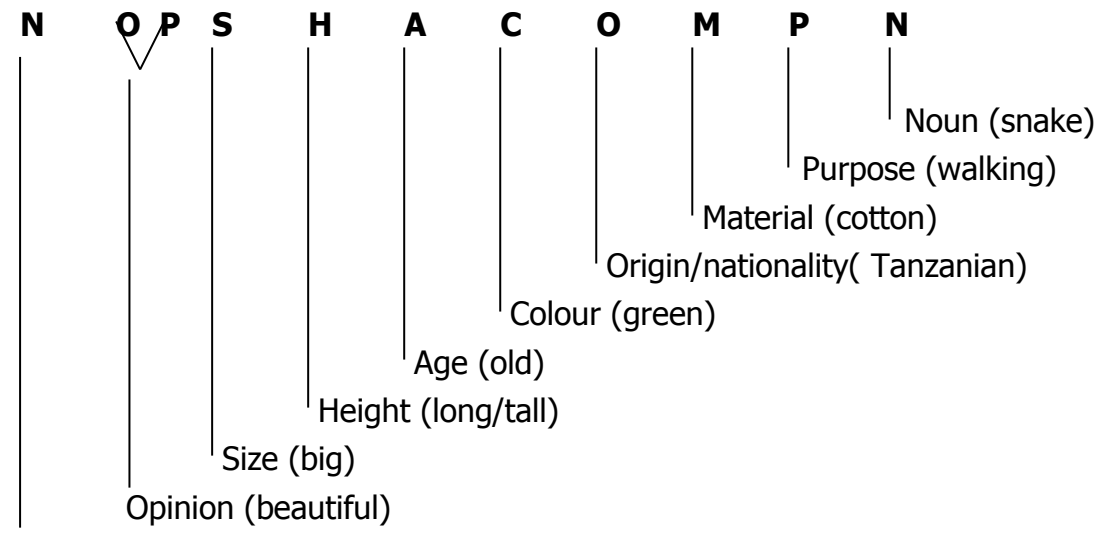

ORDER OF ADJECTIVES

- When there is more than one adjective before a noun, they are arranged in a particular order.
- Any adjective in form of a noun or gerund comes next to the noun it qualifies e.g
  - an interesting history book
  - a cheap transistor radio
  - some clean drinking water
  - a strong walking stick
  - an American riding bike
  - a green milking cup
  - a beautiful swimming costume
  - some new washing powder
- Opinion adjectives normally come first followed by fact adjectives. e.g ugly, beautiful, interesting, lovely, nice, expensive, handsome, exciting , good looking, attractive, cheap etc.

Order of adjectives.

Order = Number – opinion – size – shape- height- age – colour – origin /nationality – material – purpose – noun.

This order forms a word called OPSHACOMPN.

Examples.

1. I found a snake. It was long. It was green in colour. It was big and ugly.

Order:

I found an ugly big long green snake.

2. Jimmy bought a coat. It was made of wool. It was expensive. It was large and brown in colour.

LESSON 1

Comparison of adverbs

Comparing adverbs is similar to comparing adjectives. We use both the comparative and the superlative degree. Adverbs which end with 'ly' are compared using…… more…. and …..most….. in the comparative and superlative degree respectively.

Study the following examples

Positive	Comparative	Superlative
happily	more happily	most happily
carefully	more carefully	most carefully
confident	more confidently	most confidently

The comparative degree takes 'than' as it is with adjectives
You must do your work more carefully than your sister does.

Some adverbs remain in the same form as adjectives and these include:

Positive	Comparative	Superlative
early	earlier	earliest
fast	faster	fastest

The words below look like adverbs formed in the usual way but have special and different meanings.
nearly -means almost hardly- means almost none lately -means in the near past shortly -means in the near future directly -means immediately,

LESSON 2
Structure: ……as soon as ……
Read the sentences below

a. As soon as the lights turned red, all the motorists stopped.
b. All the motorists stopped as soon as the lights turned red.

As soon as can be used in place of immediately and no sooner because they carry the same meaning

Now compare the following sentences
1. Immediately the car over turned, all the passengers started calling Jesus.
2. As soon as the car over turned, all the passengers started calling Jesus.
3. The car over turned as soon as the tyre burst.
4. No sooner had the tyre burst than the car over turned.
5. Hardly had the tyre burst when the car overturned.
6. Scarcely had the tyre burst when the car overturned.
7. Barely had the tyre burst when the car overturned.

Activity:
Join the following sentences using as soon as

1. The police officer gave a signal. All the vehicles stopped.
2. The motorist turned the direction. He sensed danger.
3. The bus got full. The driver started the engine.
4. We reached the black spot. The driver reduced the speed.

WEEK 7
LESSON 1
Structure: First …… next ……. then

Read the sentences and find out their meaning.

First repair the car, next wash it and then begin driving.

First learn how to drive, next process a driving permit, then begin driving.

First look right, next look left then right again before you cross the road.

Now choose activities involving three steps and then direct your friend such as fetching water – first get a jerry can, next move to the well, then draw water.

This structure can be used to describe steps taken in doing something in the right way.

Use the structure……. first …….. next …. then to direct the following activities.

6. Spelling a new word.
1. travelling to town.
2. looking for the right taxi.
3. replacing a flat tyre.
4. paying the fare.

LESSON 2

DIRECT AND INDIRECT SPEECH

(a) Direct speech pattern one

- This is used when writing down the actual words of the speaker. These words are always enclosed into inverted commas(quotation marks " ")
- They are always used in reporting matters in court, newspapers, books and many other writings or quotations.
- This pattern one follows the order as shown below;
- He said, " CL……."

Examples.

1. Mukulu said, "I can defend myself. "
2. The chairman said, "Stop making noise!"
3. The proposers said, "We have been cheated."
4. Apuuli, "I cannot chair the debate now."
5. He asked me, "John, do you support such a motion?"

Note: In pattern one, the reporting verb comes before the actual words. It is followed by a comma before opening the quotation marks.

Exercise

Punctuate the following sentences in direct speech . Do not change the order of words.

1. The teacher asked what is the matter with you
