My name is Junior Jones, 11. I go to Mama Kevin Academy. During the COVID-19 lockdown of schools, my school organised online lessons. Firstly, the school bought some computers and connected them to the internet. Secondly, the school sent e-mails to our parents to notify them about the lessons. The parents were told to prepare their children for these lessons.

The lessons were conducted using an internet application(app). This was to be downloaded using the telephone or computer. We were advised by the school to ensure we had a connection to the internet. That means we needed mobile data to enable the phones access the internet. On a daily basis, the school sent us a password. These were digits that we could use to sign-in so as to access the lessons.

During the lessons, the teachers explained using the audio and video connections. At the end of the lessons, they always gave us some questions to answer at home and upload to the school website for marking. Some numbers were so hard that I was using the internet café to scan my work and upload it to the website. Home schooling during the lockdown was not a bed of roses. in full sentences.

My lovely father
In his brand-new Mercedes Benz
On a journey to a countryside
To meet and chat with grandfather
He ignites the car and waves goodbye.

All seems well on his well journey
Until his Mercedes Benz suddenly stops
At the dusty roadside he parks
Attends to the mechanical faults
And checks the fuel levels again.

Eventually, the journey restarts
Through the hills, valleys and steeps
The Mercedes Benz gear lever staggers
But steady on the steering father is
And his seat belt is just tight.

At last he is at grandfather's
He honks the horn of the vehicle and parks aside
The boot, widely open it goes
To unload foodstuffs for grandfather
Before his return journey to the city.
