Section B

Question 51 to 55 carries 10 marks each

51. Read the passage below carefully and in full sentences, answer the questions that follow.

Different places in our country were named basing on the reasons best known by our ancestors.

These names of places help to warn, inform and prohibit people from doing an activity which tend to be against the societal norms and rules.

The names of other places were given to remind people about things which had happened in the past. These things could be extremely good, bad or so sad.

Chief Awich of Payera Kingdom is one of the most celebrated resistors against the British colonialists in African Continent.

This is because he led the fighters who staged Lamogi rebellion against the British colonialists as a result of their forced registration of guns owned by the Acholi people so that they could be taxed and later collected to disarm them.

These guns were given to the Acholi people by the British missionary called Sir Samuel Baker in order to protect the local people of the area against the widely spread slave trade. The rebellion was staged on Guru Guru Hills in 1911 in Lamogi Sub County in the current Amuru District. Thus is the reason why the war was named Lamogi Rebellion.

This rebellion ended after 90 days. The Lamogi fighters then decided to hide in the caves of Guru Guru Hills with their guns, bows and arrows in order to save their lives but the British colonialists were very determined to get them even in caves.
When Chief Awich was arrested, he was taken to a far away wilderness on top of a hill full of impala and imprisoned.

Having felt the late night hunger, coldness, and being scared, he shouted
Lumera ki lamera, An atye kany ni kololo" Meaning "dear brothers and sisters, I'm here completely alone in the wilderness"
The Baganda guards and the Bristish who imprisoned him on the hill heard him shouting' Kololo….., Kololo…, Kololo" They then named the Lonely hill Kololo which is not changed up to date.
