TOPIC: MAJOR WORLD ORGANISATION

SUB TOPIC: THE UNITED NATIONS ORGANISATION

THE AGENCIES OF UN

ORGANS OF UN

THE UNIVERSAL DECLARATION OF HUMAN RIGHTS.

COMMONWEALTH OF NATIONS

ORGANISATION OF PETROLEUM EXPORTING COUNTRIES (OPEC)

SESN	COMPETENCE.	FACT/CONTENT	METHOD	RELEVA	LESSON ACTIVITY	SCENARIO
1.	explains how the two world wars led to the formation of the and Nations works. Describes the membership of the UN. Identifies the organs of the UN. Identifies the importance of the United Nations.	MAJOR WORLD ORGANISATIONS These are organisations formed by countries in different parts of the world for particular purposes. Examples of major world organisations. - The United Nations Organisation (UNO) - The Commonwealth of Nations - Organisation of Petroleum Exporting Countries (OPEC) THE UNITED NATIONS ORGANISATION (UNO) UNITED NATIONS	Guided discovery Guided group discussion Think pair share Presentation	To enable the learner understand Global Governance and Diplomacy To enable the learner Understand the Role of the UN in Peace and Security To enable the learner Explore Sustainable Development To enable the learner foster Critical Thinking and	Explaining how the two world wars led to the formation of the and Nations works. Describing the membership of the UN. Identifying the organs of the UN. Identifying the importance of the United Nations.	Global crisis negotiation Pandemic response Economic crisis rescue Global peace meeting Financial crisis Development projects

		The United Nations Organisation (UNO) is also known as the United Nations (UN). UN is an international organisation that was formed on 24th October, 1945 replacing the League on Nations which had been formed in 1919 after World War I. The UN has its headquarters in New York City, United States of America (USA). The UN has 193 member states. Vatican City and Palestine are fully recognized as non-members of the UN. Other six countries are not members but are recognized by at least one country that is a UN member. These countries are; Taiwan, Western Sahara, Kosovo, South Ossetia, Abkhazia and Northern Cyprus. The First World War (World War I) • At the beginning of the 20th century,Germany under Kaiser William II had the ambition to conquer and control the whole world. • France,Russia and Britain prepared to defend themselves. • On 28th June, 1914, Franz Ferdinand, the crown prince of Austria and his wife Sophie,were killed by a Serbian student called Gavrilo Principe in Serbia. • Austria, an ally to Germany declared a war on Serbia.		Global Perspective

		- Russia and France prepared to fight alongside Serbia and in return, Germany declared a war on both Russia and France. - Britain also decided to side with Russia and France. - The war lasted from 1914-1918 and Germany was eventually defeated. Note: - European countries formed the League of Nations in 1919 to prevent outbreak of the Second World War. - The League of Nations took away all colonies that belonged to Germany as a punishment that was given to Germany for causing the First World War. - These colonies were given to other European countries as Mandate territories. - Mandate territories were the former colonies of Germany that were handed over to other European countries by the League of Nations after World War I. eg. Rwanda, Burundi, Tanzania, Cameroon, Togo, Namibia. - European governments which were given mandate territories were meant to rule them for the good of the natives, till they were ready for their independence. - Tanzania (German East Africa) was the East African country which was mostly affected during the war. Qn. Give the main reason for the formation of the League of Nations in 1919?

		Qn.Why did Germany lose her colonies in Africa after World War I? Qn.What is a mandate territory? The Second World War (World War II). - Adolf Hitler became the leader of Germany in 1933 and formed a party of the Nazis (his supporters). - Hitler's aim was to make Germany regain her former glory. - Hitler allied with Mussolini of Italy whose supporters were called the Facists. ✓ On 1st September,1939, Hitler attacked Poland. - On 28th June,1941, Britain and France declared a war on Germany and Italy. - The war lasted for 6 years and ended in 1945 causing death to millions of people,destruction of property and displacement of people. - African countries were involved in the war because their colonial masters took men to work as soldiers and porters in the war zones. - Algeria, Ethiopia and Somalia became battle grounds. Note: - The UN was formed in 1945 to create everlasting peace in the world. - The Mandate territories were handed over to the UN trusteeship council as Trust territories. - -Trust territories were former colonies of Germany that were handed over to the United Nations after World War II. ORGANS OF THE UN.

Organ	Role	Headquarters
United Nations General Assembly	❖ To discuss matters related to world peace, security, health etc. ❖ To approve the UN budget. NB: The heads of state and government meet once a year.	New York,USA
The International Court of Justice (ICJ)	To settle disputes among the member countries. It is the judicial organ of the UN. It has 15 judges elected by the general assembly.	Hague,Netherlands

			United Nations Secretariat.	To organize the UN international conferences. Monitor peace keeping operations. Makes the agenda for the general assembly. Translates the UN international documents. Makes the budget for the general assembly. Compiles and keeps records of world statistical information. Note: The United Nations secretariat is headed by the Secretary General. Mr. Antonio Guterres from Portugal is the current Secretary General of the	New York,USA

				United Nations. He replaced Mr. Ban Ki Moon The Last four (4) Secretary Generals of the UN. Boutros Boutros Ghali from Egypt. Kofi Annan from Ghana. Ban Ki Moon from South Korea. Antonio Guterres from Portugal.
			United Nations Security Council	To maintain international peace and security. It sends peace keeping forces to countries that have political conflicts. The council has 15 member states including 5 permanent member states. Note:	New York, USA

				✓ USA, United Kingdom, France, China and Russia are permanent member states on the United Nations Security Council.
			The Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC)	It is responsible for economic and social affairs of the UN. It uplifts the standards of living among the people of the world.	New York, USA
			The Trusteeship Council	❖ It was responsible for the administration of the 11 trust territories.	No longer in existence

Note:

- The International Court of Justice (ICJ) settles conflicts between countries while the International Criminal Court (ICC) punishes people for genocide, crimes against humanity and war crimes.

- ICC was created on 1st July,2002 and is also based in Hague, Netherlands.

2.	identifies the agencies of the UN and their functions	AGENCIES OF THE UN. 	Agency	Headquarters	Role(S)
---	---	---
United Nations Children's Fund (UNICEF)	New York, USA	It provides food and medicine to vulnerable children. It promotes gender equality through girl-child education.
United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO)	Paris, France.	It promotes standards of education worldwide. It promotes scientific advancement in research. Ensures protection of cultural heritages.
World Health Organization (WHO)	Geneva, Switzerland	It funds projects that promote public health in developing countries. It approves the newly invented drugs. It fights outbreak of epidemic diseases.		Guided discovery Guided group discussion Think pair share Presentation	To help the learner Understand How Global Problems Are Solved To build Awareness of Human Rights and Social Justice To Help learner Connect Classroom Learning to Real Life To Help learner Understand Current Events To help the Build Respect	Identifying the agencies of the UN and their functions	Financial crisis Disease outbreak Security threat response Regional conflicts Natural deserter emergency Hunger relief

					It works in areas such as immunisation, health education and provision of essential drugs.			for Cultural Diversity
			World Food Programme (WFP)	Rome, Italy	It promotes food security world-wide. It saves lives through providing food to those affected by famine.
			Food and Agricultural Organisation (FAO)	Rome, Italy	❖ It works to improve agricultural productivity and food security.
			International Monetary Fund (IMF)	Washington DC, USA	It provides financial advice to central banks. It gives short term loans to countries with deficit budget. It controls inflation of national currencies.

			International Labour Organisation (ILO)	Geneva, Switzerland.	It defends the rights of the workers. It formulates programmes to improve working conditions and employment opportunities. It defines international labour standards.
			World Meteorological Organisation (WMO)	Geneva, Switzerland	It promotes scientific research on the atmosphere and climate change. Facilitates the global exchange of meteorological data and information.
			United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees (UNHCR)	Geneva, Switzerland	It provides temporary shelter to refugees. It provides food to refugees. It provides clothes to refugees.

			United Nations Industrial Development Organisation (UNIDO)	Vienna, Austria	It promotes industrial development in developing countries. It provides technical assistance and training on issues concerning industrial development.
			International Atomic Energy Agency (IAEA)	Vienna, Austria	❖ It works for the safe and peaceful use of atomic energy.
			International Maritime Organisation (IMO)	London, UK	It seeks to prevent marine pollution from ships. It encourages marine safety and improving international shipping procedures.
			International Telecommunication Union (ITU)	Geneva, Switzerland	❖ It coordinates usage of radio and TV frequencies.
			United Nations World	Madrid, Spain	It fosters tourism education.

			Tourism Organisation (UNWTO)		It provides technical advice on how to improve the tourism industry.
			International Civil Aviation Organisation (ICAO)	Montreal-Quebec, Canada	It ensures safety and security of air transport. It ensures regularity of air transport. It serves as the medium of cooperation in all areas of civil aviation.
			World Bank Group	Washington DC, USA	❖ It provides loans to developing countries to reduce poverty.
			International Fund for Agricultural Development (IFAD)	Rome, Italy	❖ It mobilises financial resources for better food production and better nutrition among the poor in developing countries.
			Universal postal union (UPU)	Bern, Switzerland	It improves postal services. It provides technical assistance on postal matters.

			World intellectual property organisation (WIPO)	Geneva, Switzerland	It promotes international protection of property. It fosters cooperation on trademarks, copyrights and industrial designs.
			United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime (UNODC)	Vienna, Austria	❖ It ensures prevention of crimes and drug abuse
3.	Describes the objectives of UN Discusses the activities done by UN	Objectives of the UN • To prevent outbreak of another world war. • To maintain international peace and security in the world. • To promote cooperation and unity among the member states. • To promote respect for human rights. • To promote better living standards of the people of the world. • To eradicate poverty in developing countries. Activities done by the UN • Settling disputes among nations.				Guided discovery Guided group discussion Think pair share Presentation	To help the learner Understand of Global Peace and Security To help the learner Understand Value of International Cooperation To help the learner	Describing the objectives of UN Discussing the activities done by UN	Maintaining international peace and security Developing friendly relations among nations Achieving international cooperation in solving global problems

		- Eradicating poverty in developing countries. - Working towards improving people's living standards. - Fighting against diseases which affect people. Achievements of the UN. - It has promoted cooperation and unity among the member states. - It has promoted international trade. - It has promoted peace in the world. - It has promoted respect for human rights. - It provides technical and financial advice to developing countries. Challenges faced by the UN. - Shortage of funds to run its programmes effectively. - Insecurity in some parts of the world. - Differences in political systems among the member states. - World dictators. - Conflicts among the member states.		Understand Social and Economic Development To help the learner Build Global Citizenship and Responsibility		Addressing Global Hunger World Health Response to a Pandemic Successful Eradication of Smallpox The Rwandan Genocide Syrian Refugee Crisis The Universal Declaration of Human Rights

		Similarities between the UN and the AU. • Both work towards creating peace in the member states. • Both work towards promoting respect for human rights. • Both help in settling disputes among countries. • Both aim at eradicating poverty among people. • Both work towards improving people's living standards. Differences between the UN and the AU. • UN works towards promoting peace in all parts of the world while AU works towards promoting peace in African countries. • UN aims at eradicating poverty in all parts of the world while AU aims at eradicating poverty in African countries. • UN unites countries in all parts of the world while AU unites only African countries. • UN works towards promoting respect for human rights in all parts of the world while AU works towards promoting respect for human rights in African countries. UN works towards improving people's standards of living in all parts of the world while AU works towards improving people's standards of living in African countries
4.	outlines the human rights stated in the UN charter.	THE UNIVERSAL DECLARATION OF HUMAN RIGHTS.	Guided discovery	To Help Learners Understand Their Rights	Outlining the human rights stated in the UN charter.	Protecting children in crisis

	Identifies ways in which human rights are violated. Discusses ways in which human rights should be respected.	The Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR) was the declaration which was adopted by the United Nations (UN) General assembly on 10th Dec, 1948 in Paris, France. It consists of 30 articles and all national constitutions are expected to uphold all the rights as contained in this declaration. • Human rights are basic natural freedoms all human beings are entitled to. • We are all born free and fair. • We have our own thoughts and ideas. • We should all be treated in the same way. • Freedom from discrimination. • The right to life. • Freedom from slavery. • Freedom from torture. • We have rights no matter where we go. • We are all equal before the law. • The right to have our rights protected by the law. • Freedom from unfair detainment. • The right to trial. • We are always innocent till proven guilty. • The right to privacy.	Guided group discussion Think pair share Presentation	To Promote Respect, Tolerance, and Equality To Promote Peaceful Conflict Resolution To Empower Learners to Become Active Citizen To Prepare Learners for Life in a Diverse World To Protect Children and Vulnerable Groups To Develop Critical Thinking Skills in learners	Identifying ways in which human rights are violated. Discussing ways in which human rights should be respected.	Protecting Indigenous Rights Children in Armed Conflict Religious Discrimination in Schools : Access to Healthcare in a Conflict Zone Discrimination Against Migrants Access to Education for Disabled Students Refugee Camp Conditions

		• Freedom to move. • The right to seek a safe place to live. • Right to a nationality. • Every grown up has the Right to marry and have a family. • The right to own property. • Freedom of thought. • We have a right to believe in what we want, to have religion or to change it if we want. • Freedom of expression. • We have a right to say what we think and share our ideas with other people. • The right to public assembly. • We have a right to meet our friends and work together. • The right to democracy. • Right to social security. • We have the right to affordable housing, medicine, education and childcare. • Every grown up has the right to do a job. • The right to play. • Right to food and shelter. • The right to education. • The right to copyright. • The right to a fair and free world.				Children in Armed Conflict Arbitrary Detention of Political Opponents Gender-based Discrimination in Employment Forced Evictions in a Developing Country

		• There must be proper order so we can all enjoy rights and freedoms in our own country and all over the world. • Responsibility. • We have a duty to protect the rights and freedoms of other people. • No one can take away your own rights Human rights abuse / violation This is the denial of the basic natural freedoms to which all people are entitled. Child abuse is the denial of basic natural freedoms to which all children are entitled. Forms of Human rights abuse/Ways in which human rights are violated. Torturing of political opponents. Slavery Death penalty • Racial segregation. Raping of women. Sexual mutilation. Denial of freedom of movement. Killing of political opponents. Domestic violence against women. Detention of people without court trial. Forms of child abuse. • Physical child abuse • Emotional child abuse/Psychological child abuse. • Sexual child abuse.

		Ways of controlling human rights abuse. • By promoting peace and security in the country. • By enforcing laws against human rights abuse. • By sensitising people about their rights. • By establishing organisations that promote human rights eg. Uganda Human Rights Commission (UHRC). Note:-UHRC was established in 1995 in recognition of Uganda's violent history characterized by arbitrary arrests, detention without trial, torture etc. International organisations that monitor human rights. • Amnesty international. • Youth for human rights international. • International federation for human rights. • Human rights watch. Note: • Basic needs are things which man can not live without eg. food, clothes, medical care, security, education etc. • Children's rights are the basic natural freedoms to which all children are entitled. Examples of children's rights include;The right to food, right to medical care, right to shelter, right to education, right to play, right to clothes etc.

5.	explains the role-played by the Commonwealth countries and other member states in the world. Discusses the functions of the Commonwealth of Nations. Compares the activities of the UN and Commonwealth of Nations. identifies the challenges of the UN and the Commonwealth.	 The Commonwealth of Nations is an organisation which is made up of Britain and her former colonies, protectorates and dominion states. Dominion states are independent states that regard the queen of England as their head of state e.g. Canada, Australia and New Zealand. To date, the Commonwealth of Nations has 53 member states. The Commonwealth of Nations is headed by the Queen of England. Queen Elizabeth II is the current head of the Commonwealth of nations (since 6th February,1952) Commonwealth countries is Africa. Botswana, Cameroon, Ghana, Kenya, Mauritius, Mozambique, Namibia, Nigeria, South Africa, Swaziland, Gambia, Uganda	Guided discovery Guided group discussion Think pair share Presentation	To Promote international cooperation and peace To Enhances global citizenship and awareness To enable the learner share values such as democracy, human rights, and equality To enable the learner Explain historical and cultural connections To Encourage critical thinking	explaining the role-played by the Commonwealth countries and other member states in the world. Discussing the functions of the Commonwealth of Nations. Comparing the activities of the UN and Commonwealth of Nations. Identifying the challenges of the UN and the	Education and youth meeting Trade and Economic Partnerships within the Commonwealth Education Exchange Program Commonwealth Games and Sports Diplomacy Supporting Democratic Governance Addressing Global Health Issues

		Lesotho Malawi Tanzania Commonwealth countries in Europe. ▯ United Kingdom (Britain, Northern Ireland, Wales, Scotland) Commonwealth countries in Asia ▯ Bangladesh • Malaysia • Sri Lanka ▯ Brunei • Pakistan ▯ India • Singapore Commonwealth countries in Australia. Fiji • Solomon islands Australia • Tuvalu Tonga • Nauru New Zealand • Kiribati Commonwealth countries in America.	Rwanda Seychelles Sierra Leone • Cyprus • Malta	Zambia Papua New Guinea Samoa Vanuatu		about global issues To Prepare learners to engage responsibly in a globalized world	Commonwealth.

		 • Canada • Saint Vincent and • Antigua and Barbuda Grenadines • Bahamas • Saint Kitts and Nevis • Barbados • Belize • Dominica • Grenada • Guyana • Jamaica • Saint Lucia. • Trinidad and Tobago Note: Commonwealth countries are united by the following. ✓ They use English as their official language. Queen Elizabeth II • They were mostly former colonies of Britain. • They have similar education systems. • They regard the queen of England as their head. Structure of administration of the Commonwealth of Nations. ii) The Heads of state summit. It is the policy making body of the Commonwealth of Nations. It is made up of heads of state or governments. The heads of state meet for a week once in every 2 years.

		They have lengthy discussions on issues that are affecting the member states. iii) The Secretariat. It is headed by the Secretary General who is elected by the Commonwealth Heads of state. Chief Emeka Anyaoku from Nigeria was the first Secretary General of the Commonwealth of Nations. Patricia Scotland from Dominican Republic is the current Secretary general of the Commonwealth of Nations. Duties of the Secretary General. • To prepare the agenda of the secretarial meetings. • To supervise commonwealth committees. • To chair the secretariat meetings. • Ministerial meetings. Ministers of Finance and Defense meet once every year while those of Education and Health meet once every after 3 years. These ministers meet to discuss issues concerning trade, technology, development, political stability and improved social services. • High commissioners. A High commissioner is a representative of a commonwealth state to another commonwealth state. for example, the representative of Uganda in South Africa is given a title of a high commissioner.

		• His office is at the High commission e.g. The South African High commission in Uganda. An Ambassador is a representative of a non-commonwealth country in another country. For example, the representative of USA in Uganda is given a title of an ambassador. • His office is at the embassy e.g. The American Embassy in Uganda. Commonwealth areas of work. • Education • Human rights • Sports • Economics • Democracy Commonwealth Heads of Government Meeting (CHOGM) CHOGM is a meeting in which Commonwealth heads of governments meet to discuss matters of mutual interest. It is the main decision making forum for the Commonwealth organisation. It is held every after 2 years and the Commonwealth chairperson is the president of the hosting country. Mr Boris Johnson from United Kingdom is the current chairperson of the Commonwealth of Nations (19th-20th April,2018)

The next CHOGM will be held in Rwanda in 2020 and will be chaired by H.E Paul Kagame. President Yoweri Museveni was the chairperson of the Commonwealth of Nations in 2007 (23rd25th November).

Benefits of CHOGM.

- It promotes the development of infrastructure such as hotels, roads etc.
- It attracts many foreign investors.
- It creates market for locally manufactured goods.
- It strengthens friendship among commonwealth countries.
- It opens up the country to the outside world.

Commonwealth games.

These are an international multi-sport event held every after 4 years.

The last commonwealth games were held between 4th and 15th April 2018 in Gold CoastQueensland, Australia.

- The next commonwealth games will be held in Birmingham, England in 2022.

Examples of commonwealth games.

Athletics	Diving	Squash
Badminton	Gymnastics • Hockey	Swimming
Beach volleyball	Lawn bowls	Tennis

		Boxing Netball Weight lifting Cycling Wrestling Note: -Commonwealth games promote cooperation among commonwealth countries and also promote the development of infrastructure in the hosting country. Objectives of the Commonwealth of Nations. • To promote democracy among commonwealth member states. • To promote respect for human rights Commonwealth countries. • To eradicate poverty in the Commonwealth member states. • To uplift the standards of living among people in Commonwealth countries. • To oppose racism in Commonwealth member states. • To promote trade among Commonwealth states. Benefits of the Commonwealth of Nations. • It provides scholarships to students in Commonwealth countries. • It promotes peace and security in the Commonwealth member countries. • It provides financial assistance to member states. • It promotes respect for human rights in its member countries. • It promotes trade among commonwealth countries.

		• It organises commonwealth games which promote friendship among commonwealth countries. Symbols of the Commonwealth of Nations. • English language. • Commonwealth anthem. • Commonwealth flag. • Commonwealth day (2nd Monday in March) Similarities between the UN and the Commonwealth of nations. • Both aim at promoting peace among the member states. • Both promote development in the member states. • Both aim at promoting unity in the member states. • Both work towards improving people's standards of living.
6.	Describes OPEC Describes the membership of OPEC Discusses the challenges facing OPEC	ORGANISATION OF PETROLEUM EXPORTING COUNTRIES (OPEC)  	Guided discovery Guided group discussion Think pair share Presentation	To help the learner Understand the global importance of oil and energy markets To help the learner Learn how supply, demand, and pricing work in real life	Describing OPEC Describing the membership of OPEC Discussing the challenges facing OPEC	Oil production decision Response to Global Oil Price Crisis Influence on Global Energy Policy The Price of Oil

		OPEC is an international organization that was formed in Baghdad conference on 10th-14th September, 1960 by Iran, Iraq, Kuwait, Saudi Arabia and Venezuela. It is made up of 15 member states. - It has its headquarters in Vienna, Austria. OPEC member states in Africa Algeria, Angola, Libya, Nigeria, Gabon, Equatorial Guinea, • Congo Brazzaville. Other member states of OPEC. Iraq, Iran, Kuwait, Qatar, Saudi Arabia, United Arab Emirates (UAE), Venezuela, • Ecuador Objectives of OPEC. - To ensure a steady supply of oil products. - To regulate oil production and supply. - To unite all oil producing countries. - To make oil prices constant. Note:		To help Understand international cooperation and interdependence To enable the learner Connect economics, politics, and geography To enable the learner Develop critical thinking and awareness of global issues To enable the learner Appreciate the environmental and

		Uganda is not a member of OPEC because it has not yet started producing and exporting her petroleum. In East Africa, crude oil is refined at Mombasa in Kenya and Dar-es-salaam in Tanzania. Benefits of oil mining to African countries. It is a source of employment to people. Oil exports earn foreign exchange. It is a source of government revenue through taxing oil mining companies. It is a source of raw materials to industries. It promotes the development of infrastructure. It is a source of cheap fuel to the people of Africa. Problems caused by oil mining. It leads to pollution of the environment. It has led to devegetation. It has led to shortage of labour in other sectors. It has led to Rural-urban migration. Problems facing oil mining in Africa. ✞ Insecurity in some oil mining areas. ✞ Fluctuation of oil prices on the world market. ✞ Competition from other oil producing countries.		sustainable development impact To enable the learner Explore potential careers in energy and international relations		